

Guide to Burning

in Mesa County

Read through this guide and click here to apply for your Open Burn Permit!

Table of Contents

Why is burning regulated?.....	pg. 2
Which permit do I need?.....	pg. 2
When can I burn?.....	pg. 3
What can I burn?.....	pg. 3
What can't I burn?.....	pg. 3
Why are Open Burn Bans issued?.....	pg. 4
How do I get a permit?.....	pg. 4

Why is burning regulated?

1.

To protect the health of our residents

2.

To reduce pollution in Mesa County

What permits are offered?

1. Agricultural Burn Permit

- a. $0 fee
- b. Valid for a calendar year
- c. Combined with the fire safety regulations.
 - i) Registering for this permit gives your local fire department a heads up that you'll be burning.

2. General Burn Permit

- a. $10 fee for a single-season permit OR $20 for a dual-season permit.
- b. Residents can choose which permit they would like to purchase, but a valid permit must be obtained before open burning.

3. City of Grand Junction Permit

- a. If your property is within Grand Junction City limits, contact the Grand Junction Fire Department at (970) 549-5800 or click here.

When can I burn?

1. Agricultural Burn Permits allow burning year-round.
2. General Burn Permits allow burning only during the burn seasons
 - a. Spring Open burn Season - March 1 through May 31
 - b. Fall Open Burn Season - September 1 through October 31
3. Burns must take place two hours after sunrise and must be completely extinguished two hours before sunset.

*Residents above 6,000 feet elevation are exempt from the seasonal restrictions.

What can I burn?

- ✓ Agricultural Burns - materials related to the agricultural process
 - a. cover vegetation to prepare the land for crop production
 - b. orchard trimmings
 - c. weeds
 - d. maintenance of irrigation ditches
 - ✓ General Burns
 - a. dry weeds
 - b. dry garden waste
 - c. clean, dry tree, shrub or brush trimmings less than 1" in diameter
-

What can't I burn?

- | | | |
|---------------|--------------------------------|----------------|
| ✗ Trash | ✗ Treated wood or pallets | ✗ Insulation |
| ✗ Tree stumps | ✗ Contruction debris/ lumber | ✗ Aerosol cans |
| ✗ Tires | ✗ Hazardous or toxic materials | ✗ Plastic |
| ✗ Chemicals | ✗ Commercial landscaping waste | |
| ✗ Motor Oil | ✗ Leaf and grass clippings | |

Burning in a barrel is PROHIBITED at all times.

Why are Open Burn Bans Issued?

⊘ Weather

- High Wind Warnings
- Red Flag Warnings
- Fire Weather Watch
- Wind Advisories

⊘ Air Quality

- Western Slope Airwatch Alerts
- Colorado Department of Public Health & Environment Air Quality Action Days

⊘ Public Safety

- Mesa County Sheriff's Office Burn Bans

How do I get a permit?

1.

Apply online at www.health.mesacounty.us or contact Mesa County Public Health at (970) 248-6900.

- Residents who need assistance using the online system or don't have access to a computer or an internet connection, can still apply for an Open Burn Permit in person at Mesa County Public Health, 510 29 ½ Road in Grand Junction, or at Lower Valley Fire District, 166 N Mesa St. in Fruita.

Public computers are also available at Mesa County

- Libraries locations for individuals who need computer access to apply for a burn permit. Printouts from library computers cost 15 cents per page.

2.

Carefully read the conditions of the permit and agree to follow the rules for Open Burning.

3.

Print a copy of your permit and ensure it's available on site of the burn.

4.

Follow the instructions on the permit.

Click here to leave this website and be redirected to a secure payment site to fill out your application and purchase your Open Burn Permit.